Light Up Valentines ~
Saturday, Feb. 10 10-2

School-age kids—Want to make an awesome light-up circuit Valentine? Come create a card that really lights up to brighten someone's Valentine's Day.

Story Times on Friday morning, 10 a.m.!

Story times will continue on Friday mornings from 10 - 10:45 a.m. for ages 3 - 5, including stories, crafts, and other activities. No registration required. February themes are:

Feb. 2:
Backwards
Day

Feb. 9:
Jungle Jam

Time

Baby TALK Wednesdays 9:30 - 10:15 a.m. For ages birth through 3 with caregivers

These informal parent/child sessions are led by trained Baby TALK instructors and provide opportunity to share parenting concerns and celebrate achievements while enjoying books, songs and fingerplays.

Tech Club ~ Tuesday, February 13 10:00 am

Perhaps you've heard of "streaming" but don't know what it is or why you should try it. At the next Tech Club meeting, instructor Val Bock will explain how you can access music, news, movies, television shows and more through your device with streaming. No registration required.

Valentines for Vets ~ Jan. 29 - Feb. 9

We'll have supplies for creating valentines for veterans available at the library from January 29 - February 9. All ages can participate, and you can make as many valentines as you like.

Valentines will be mailed to the VA Illiana Health Care System in Danville.

Dance with Me!
Tuesday, February 20 at 10 a.m.

Children and adult partners will enjoy dance movements led by Michi Barber from The Dance Centre. Geared for little ones 16 months through 3 years, but kids yet not in kindergarten are welcome.
Free. No registration necessary.
